

Canoe/Hiking Trip What to Bring List

WHAT TO BRING: (remember, less weight is usually better)

- HANDWRITTEN GOALS
- Clearly labeled medications and Physician's Authorization Form, if bringing prescriptions. Unless absolutely necessary, please do not bring non-prescription items.
- Signed Health Form (by parent/guardian if you are under 18)
- Signed Adventure Trip Release Form and Behavior Agreement
- Bible (small NIV if possible)
- Paper, pen and/or pencil
- Sleeping bag: be sure that your sleeping bag is warm but small and compact. A large bag will consume your packing space.
- small backpack for hiking
- Flashlight (check batteries)
- Insect repellent (non-aerosol)
- Sunscreen or protective lotion
- Hand Sanitizer
- 1 or 2 plastic garbage bags (these serve many purposes)
- Personal items that you know you will need
- Hat for protection from the sun
- Small towel and washcloth
- 1 pair of hiking boots or tennis shoes (lightweight & broken in for day hiking)
- Second pair of old tennis shoes or sturdy pair of sandals with straps to be worn in the canoe and while swimming (not flip-flops)
- Modest one-piece swimsuit
- 1 pair of long pants
- 2 pairs of shorts (prefer quickly drying shorts)
- Underwear
- Socks (2-4 pairs)
- 2 T-shirts (prefer quickly drying shirts)
- Wool sweater or something comparable for warmth
- Rain gear, top and bottom (top is most important)
- Glass Straps for prescription glasses
- Your own drinking mug or cup
- Your own unbreakable plate and eating utensils
- Extra set of clothes for your last night at camp and your trip home. This will be kept in your luggage and stored in a safe place while you are on your trip.

OPTIONAL ITEMS: Sunglasses, dry bag from Walmart ($10), camera,

KEEP IN MIND: Everything you need will be carried in a waterproof plastic barrel (30x18), with about as much space as a large backpack. In addition to your personal gear, you will be expected to carry some of your own food in a small stuff sack. Your sleeping bag should fit into a stuff sack approximately 9" X 20". You may purchase a sleeping bag for $35.

SHOES: At no time will you be permitted to be barefooted. Sandals with Velcro straps will come off of your foot very easily when in the river and should have buckles if you intend to wear them while canoeing. Flip-flops are not allowed for your time in the canoe; however they are permitted for your time at the campsites.

APPEARANCE GUIDELINES:

- Clothing with questionable words or graphics is not to be worn.
- All clothing is to be modest and non-revealing (no tight-fitting clothes, low-cut necklines or backs, excessively short shorts, no bare midriffs).
